

WHAT IS IT?

BERGAMO (ITALY)

15-20 SEPTEMBER 2015

The FOOD FILM FEST, sponsored by Montagna Italia Association and the Chamber of Commerce of Bergamo, with the artistic direction of Festival Internazionale del Cinema Association, is an international competition dedicated to food and film. The event aims to promote a culture of food through conscious films, shorts, documentaries and animations that develop around the taste, culinary art, the issues related to a proper nutrition and food production, to biodiversity and gastronomic memory as a collective heritage to be preserved.

Expo 2015 will be an extraordinary event that will give visibility to the universal tradition, creativity and innovation in the food sector, proposing these issues in the light of the new global scenarios. The organization collects these ideas, to give life to a film festival that identifies the food, in all its forms, its central theme.

There are 3 contest sections:

FOOD MOVIE section is open to films in any format, short and long movies. The works should present food as an expression of culture and knowledge, as passion or obsession, as a representative of a social condition.

DOCUMENTARY section is open to documentary works in any format, that have to subject agribusiness issues, issues related to nutrition, the memory of ancient recipes, the culinary traditions of a given territory, the production of particular products, food as passion or resource, nutritional education.

ANIMATION section is open to works in which pictures, graphic line, sculptures or materials come to life through a variety of techniques, becoming long and short animated films, dedicated to food.

Food Film Festival organizes also a photo contest with the same issues. Photos must have as topic food and nutrition: typical grocery stores, markets, street food, people eating, cooking, transforming raw materials; issues related to nutrition; crops and activities related to agriculture and farming, the food culture all over the world.

Films and Photos must be submitted not later than 15.06.2015.

Read the regulation for any further information.

The works must be sent to:
